There is lots to do in our local area and we have lots of visitor information located in the entrance lobby. If you're looking for inspiration, our team are on hand and happy to give recommendations.

From The Five Bells, you can enjoy the best of both worlds, the stunning Suffolk coastline with places like Covehithe and Southwold, as well as the rich, rural countryside too.

You will receive an email from us shortly after your departure inviting you to share your feedback and thoughts on your visit. Your feedback is very important as it helps us to continuously improve the experience that we deliver.

Wishing you a lovely stay in our beautiful Suffolk countryside.

MORE ABOUT OUR LOVELY LOCATION...

Wrentham is a very old village and you'll see many heritage touches as you explore, like the animal pound which was used in the 18th century to contain stray animals rounded up in the parish. There's the Church of St Nicholas, parts of which date back to the 13th century. It has five bells in the tower, perhaps that's where our name comes from, others say it's because you can hear the bells of 5 churches from our location. There is a small village shop, Wrentham Stores, which is situated on the A12, a 10 minute walk or 2 minute drive away, should you need basic supplies.

Just off the A12, The Five Bells is the perfect place from which to explore. Covehithe is a lovely sandy beach just a short walk away, very much a forgotten stretch of the Suffolk Coast. You've also got the more popular beaches, Southwold Walberswick and Kessingland.

As well as our lovely pub, we also have a few more that are only a short drive away.
